

1960 Rodeo Queen Claims Feeling of Accomplishment

By ELSIE HARMAN
Herald Staff Writer

Behind the glamour of being chosen Queen lies worthy experience for any teenager. Kaye Thierman, 1960 Lethbridge Rodeo Queen, entered as Queen candidate with an open mind to gain knowledge and walked away with a feeling of accomplishment. She considered the title an honor but she also stressed that her personality had been helped by this competition. "The more I do the more I learn," Miss Thierman commented. "By participating in events as Queen candidate I adjusted to meeting and competing with people."

As candidate she was judged on personality, appearance and horsemanship throughout the Exhibition. It must be noted that the events involved were not entirely new to Miss Thierman though.

She has shown active interest in rodeos and barrel races for the past three years. Miss Thierman is also a member of the Foremost Roping Club, Canadian Barrel Racing Association and the Southern Alberta Roping and Riding Association.

Raised in a farming and ranching environment she has plans of returning to this life in the near future.

Miss Thierman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Thierman, Lethbridge, was born in Webb, Sask., in 1940 and completed her Grade 6 education there. The family moved to Taber in 1951 and then settled on a cattle ranch in Stavely about six years later.

After completing her Grade 11 Miss Thierman came to Lethbridge to obtain her Junior Matriculation and one year of Business College. Later she entered CJOOC as the manager's secretary, where she is presently employed.

At least one other engagement awaits the Lethbridge Queen. On July 21, she will travel to Medicine Hat to compete in the Miss Canada Rodeo Queen contest. If successful, she will go to the USA this Fall to take part in the national finals.

Even if Medicine Hat proves to be the final Queen competition for Miss Thierman she will have fond memories to look back on. This October she plans to marry and live on a farm in Skiff. But barrel races, rodeo events and her clubs will not be forgotten. Instead Miss Thierman hopes to find more time for active participation.

Engagement Announced

CONGRATULATIONS TO Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart of 221 13th St. N. will be going out to them, Saturday, July 16, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. Married by Rev. W. Smith at the Parish Church manse at Shieldhill near Falkirk, Scotland, they have four children James, Andrew and Mrs. John (Isa) Dorren in Lethbridge and Alex in Calgary. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are both hospital patients and the family party has been cancelled.

Guests in the city with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eggen are their son, Dr. Robert Eggen and Mrs. Eggen and young son James of San Diego, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil C. Fredricks, Thomas and Peggy have returned to their home in the city from an extended visit to the west coast and California.

Among relatives in the city to attend funeral services for the late John Irving Searle were Mr. and Mrs. E. Dickson, Lovall, Wyoming; Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Bingham, Woolford; Mr. T. C. Bingham and Mrs. C. Farren, Magrath; Mr. and Mrs. James Terry and daughter, Verla of Raymond and Mr. and Mrs. Lynden Bone of Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miller have returned to their home in the city from a motor trip which took them to the Peace River country and Fort St. John in northern Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Erdmann of the city are among vacationers at Pigeon Lake, Alta.

Guests with Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Whitfield have been the latter's mother, Mrs. R. MacQuarrie and sister, Mrs. J. Hays. Before returning to their homes in Edmonton they accompanied Mrs. Whitfield on a holiday to the States.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Swidinski of Warner have had their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Cain of Seattle as their guests. The couple vacationed in Banff and also visited with the latter's brother and family in Calgary and left via Waterton Lakes and Lake McDonald to return to their home.

The Cathedral of St. Mary on the Shannon island portion of Limerick in the Republic of Ireland dates from 1142.

NOTHING QUITE LIKE OCTOPUS CHOWDER — Treat for skindivers taking part in competitions this weekend will be potfuls of octopus chowder, being prepared by Mr. and Mrs. David McGregor. The chowder, said to be delicious, will be served after the 150 divers compete in "treasure chest" hunts off Victoria waterfront. (CP Photo; Herald Engraving)

Portraits of Potential White House Candidates

By PETER EDSON

LOS ANGELES (NEA)—Never mind which candidate is best qualified to run for the presidency. Forget about who could best handle the Russians, civil rights, Quemoy and Matsu or U-2.

Get right down to the basic problem of whom you would like to see living in the White House as first family. All the Democratic candidates have brought wives and children out here—all that can come. They're part of the window dressing every political office seeker displays.

So, when Sen. Lyndon Johnson arrived, his first act was to bring to the platform — not his future cabinet—but his wife, Lady-Bird and their two daughters, Lynda-Bird, 16, and Lucy Baines, 13. When the time came for the group picture at the end of the conference, they all knew what to do. A great big, wave and the victory smile.

It's a grand looking family of which the LBJs can be proud. They'd fit well in the White House. Think of all the news of the two pretty subdeb daughters and their dates, dances, birthdays, graduations and coming-out parties. Not much chance for a wedding, though. That would need a second term.

SEN. STUART SYMINGTON's two sons, Jim and Stuart Jr., opened headquarters here before the candidate and Mrs. S arrived. The boys and their good-looking wives held forth in the Symington delegates' lobby where wandering campaign button collectors came to meet them or just gawk.

About every half hour Jim grabbed his guitar and, to his wife's piano accompaniment, he sang ballads like, to the tune of "The Caissons Go Rolling" . . . "The man we ask, 'To take on the task, 'Is Missouri's Symington!"

The Symington boys and their wives wouldn't live in the White House full time with their folks—if they got there. But they could visit often, bringing their swell children for proud grandparents to show the nation.

THE KENNEDYS. Well, candidate Jack's wife and their baby daughter aren't coming to Los Angeles because Mrs. Kennedy is expecting. But most of the Kennedy clan is here—in such numbers they're hard to keep straight.

Papa Joe has rented a big house that will be family headquarters for the senator's three brothers, five sisters, plus assorted brothers-and-sisters-in-law and their offspring.

If all the Kennedys ever decide to hold a family reunion on the White House lawn, it might equal a White House Easter egg roll.

Adlai Stevenson is at a disadvantage in this race to be "first family." Divorced from his wife in '49, the Stevensons have three grown sons who wouldn't be much in evidence unless they—like the Symington boys—might go to work on the White House staff.

But the leading Democratic dark horse could make a good showing. That's Rep. Chester Bowles of Connecticut. He and Mrs. Bowles have five smart youngsters—Barbara, Chester Jr., Cynthia, Sally and Samuel—more than any other candidate.

Beauty Tips

A clean powder puff is one of your most important beauty accessories. When you wash your puff, just squeeze the suds through it gently, rinse by swishing through clear warm water. Grasp the edges and shake the dripping water out, and lay on towel in the sun to dry.

If you are having trouble applying dry rouge so that it looks like natural color, try applying it with a face powder brush instead of a puff.

Ironing freshly washed shirts and blouses is easy if the button band is laid face down over a terry towel. The buttons will sink in and the iron slide over.

A Calendar Of Local Happenings

St. Basil's Holy Name Society will sponsor a cash bingo, Friday at 8:15 p.m. in St. Basil's Church Hall.

Ladies Auxiliary to the Old Age Pensioners Organization will hold a social afternoon at the Civic Sports Centre, Friday at 2:30 p.m.

ANCIENT DICE
Dice similar to those used in modern games have been found in ancient Egyptian tombs.

Need Fairy Godmothers

All youngsters love to dress up, and boys and girls hovering in the shadow of disease are no exception. Through the kindness of a motherly lady in Port Dalhousie, Ont., the first small patients at the Unitarian Service Committee's Mokpo TB children's Hospital in South Korea, will find 42 brand new dressing gowns waiting for them. When completed, the Children's TB hospital will be one of the finest in Korea, situated in an area where there is not one single free hospital bed for desperately ill and destitute boys and girls. Some of the pain and sorrow will slip away as each youngster proudly models his gay, cosy dressing gown and escapes into the wonderful world of make-believe. Anyone who wishes to play fairy god mother to these forgotten children is invited to send a contribution to the local branch of the USC situated at the Legion Memorial Hall or monetary donations may be left at the USC depot at the Bank of Montreal.

BRAVE PRELATE
Cardinal Mercier, fearless spokesman of the Belgians during the German occupation in the First World War, was 75 at his death in 1926.
