Some of us students and some of the professors must have thought Susie Gittens had illegitimately skipped out of classes for a week. However Miss Gittens had been participating in the Miss Rodeo Canada Pageant taking place in Edmonton November 9th-15th. Not only did Susie participate, she managed to capture the title as well.

Susan Gittens was sponsored by Sutherland Cattle Co. which operates out of Dewinton, to take part in this national event. An appropriate choice noting all matters considered.

Susie is no newcomer to the rodeo circuit. She has been riding since the age of 5 and has taken part in numerous rodeos, both amateur and professional.

The decision of Miss Rodeo Canada was not based on riding ability alone. Factors influencing the decisions were rodeo knowledge, personality, public speaking, poise, as well as practical rodeo skills. Susie had not one of these requirements but all.

Some of her duties as Miss Rodeo Canada include attending rodeos on the International scale as well as the national.

Susie will be participating in numerous events around the world representing the Canadian Professional Rodeo Association. Susie will be attending the Rodeo East held in Muncton New Brunswick. She will also attend Rodeos in Oklahoma and Australia. Australia happens to be holding the first World Rodeo Competition in 1982. Taking part will be participants from Australia, New Zealand, USA and Canada.

After her year as Miss Rodeo Canada Susie plans to run for Miss Rodeo World. Eventually she plans to return to RDC to continue her studies in Pre veterinary Medicine. Congratulations Susie for I am sure all of us think you deserve it.
